

JEFFREY'S CLOSE-UPS

ABOUT THE PROJECT

A Thank You For All Those
That Made Jeffrey Possible...

Jeffrey is brought to you by the collaborative efforts of the Jeffersonville Public Art Commission, The City of Jeffersonville, Amanda Hoback, and Ava Gleitz. In 2021 the Jeffrey project was created with hopes of creating a free, outdoor, family activity for the community of Jeffersonville. Amanda's whimsical sculptures of her character, Jeffrey, were brought further to life through Ava's story that accompanies Jeffrey on each plaque throughout the sculptural experience.

The Jeffersonville Public Art Commission was created to integrate art, cultural expression, and design excellence into the public space to provide meaningful experiences that define the City of Jeffersonville's sense of place. We hope that Jeffrey fills you with joy and that you enjoy your journey of finding him!

JEFFREY'S JOURNEY

A cartoon illustration of a yellow fish character. The fish is wearing a brown baseball cap with a black brim and a black band. It has large, expressive eyes and a slight smile. It is wearing an orange skirt with a black border and a pattern of black dots, palm trees, and a sun. The fish is standing on a brown skateboard with black wheels. The background is a solid light blue.

Jeffrey is on a journey through downtown Jeffersonville.
Help us find Jeffrey - he is very adventurous!
The clues on the map look like this...

Jeffrey loves to swim,
That much is true,
Up from his swim, he is seeking a view.
Find him near Riverstage sounds Never Overlooking where the water is Found

Walking Up Spring
Jeffrey dances in the sky
Brave as can be, he looks for the signs
Trying to plan the next adventure ahead
Look for the Lightpost and you won't be misled

Jeffrey likes flying and playing around Pausing for seconds he hears a sound
Of people playing Cricut
and a train's loud horn
On the long wall, Jeffrey was set down.

Hot as can be, Jeffrey needs to cool down
Walking down Spring.
He finds the coolest spot in town
Surrounded by trees and brick walls too
Jeffrey finds a tree and bike, something brand new!

Headed towards Maple
Jeffrey marvels around Arc, Chocolate, All can be found!
Stopping near benches, low to the ground
Jeffrey's newest adventure soon will be found 🍌

Jeffrey finds a new game,
a fantabulous new sport!
Skating, sliding and riding around.
Jefferey's again low to the ground.

Crossing cross Court, care must abound!
But Jeffrey sees a park
he must wander around!
History and Glory, all do surround.
But Jeffrey likes General Fayette, he does astound.

Heusers and Hoosiers and all the fun things
Jeffrey wanders all the way across Spring.
Catching his eye is a sculpture with wings
Sitting to chat, what will the day bring?

Onto 7th, color, and cue Picasso Point emerges from the blue
Jeffrey hears music,
Jeffrey wants a view Picasso faces with green feet too
Taking up a seat
on the green shoes,
Jeffrey plays his music for you.

Surrounded by flowers and perched on a pipe
Jeffrey knew this journey was right.
Seeing his friends Jeffrey
does reunite
The Watertank does always delight
